Amend the Law of Distress and Small Debts (Ireland)
Act, 1888.

A.D. 1893.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 5 1. This Act may be cited as the Law of Distress and Small Debts (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1893. It shall be read with the Law of Distress and Small Debts (Ireland) Act, 1888, herein called the principal Act, as if it were part of same, save where inconsistent therewith. Short title and construction.
- 10 2. This Act shall come into operation on the first day of November one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three. Commencement of Act.
3. In Part II. of the principal Act "distress" shall mean and be confined to distresses for rent where the amount due and distrained for shall not exceed twenty pounds. Interpretation.
- 15 4. All decrees of the Recorder of Dublin where the amount decreed, including costs, shall not exceed twenty pounds shall be executed either by the sheriff of the county of the city of Dublin or his bailiff, or by a bailiff appointed under Part II. of the principal Act. In such last-mentioned case the sheriff shall be entitled to receive from the execution-creditor a fee of one shilling for signing the warrant, and all the provisions of Part II. of the principal Act shall apply. Decrees.
- 20 5. Section eight of Part II. of the principal Act shall be read as if the word ten instead of five were inserted therein. Amendment of section eight of principal Act.
